Mission Statement

The Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General enforces the law and defends the interests of the Commonwealth and its diverse citizens by:

- Ensuring fair and impartial administration of justice for all Pennsylvanians;
- Advocating for fair and equitable treatment of all consumers;
- Providing leadership in preventing and controlling crime committed against Pennsylvanians;
- Pursuing just punishment without fear or favor for those guilty of unlawful behavior.

As the chief law enforcement officer for the Commonwealth, I know how important it is for our staff to reflect the communities we serve. I am committed to making the Office of Attorney General a diverse and inclusive workplace. I am proud to support the work of the inter-office Diversity Leadership Council, which is instrumental to ensuring that all of our employees feel welcomed and have a full voice in our professional community.

The Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General strives to strengthen our agency with employees as diverse as the constituents we serve. We do that by seeking to attract, retain, and empower the best and the brightest; people who are open to new and different perspectives and unique viewpoints, helping us to cultivate a welcoming and inclusive environment that advances our mission and increases our commitment to and respect for diversity and inclusion. Enforcing the law and defending the citizens of the Commonwealth is what we do and our intentional focus on diversity and inclusion is how we honor and serve every corner of the Commonwealth.
