

BUGLER[®] GOLD

In the 1800s, new shipments of tobacco were announced by a company Bugler. As his horn sounded, workers would descend upon barges and wagons to process the finest and freshest leaf from the rich farmlands of America. It was customary for the Bugler to have first choice of the finest leaf. This leaf simply became known as Bugler's Gold.

Its name comes as much from the selection process as the rich and mellow smoking experience it gives with every smoke. We are proud to bring back the tradition of a mellow smoking experience from the cream of the crop, Bugler Gold.
