Your Affiant contacted United States Postal Inspector Michael Corricelli to conduct an address check on 180 Stone Church Rd., Berwick, PA 18603, Columbia County.

An intelligence analyst with the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General conducted a query within the Pennsylvania Justice Network (JNET) portal to determine whether the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (Penn DOT) had any driver demographic information pertaining to the aforementioned individual(s) living at 180 Stone Church Rd., Berwick, Pa 18603, Columbia County. JNET is a secure database in which access is limited and restricted to individuals or entities with appropriate law enforcement or social service credentials. Penn DOT had driver demographic information for all individuals. According to the Penn DOT search of 180 Stone Church Rd., Berwick, Pa 18603, Columbia County, it was determined that Fay SHIELDS (DOB:25 July 1948) and David SHIELDS (DOB: 26 November 1953) all are listed as residing at the 180 Stone Church Rd., Berwick, Pa 18603, Columbia County address.

In addition, Inspector Corricelli responded to my request with the following information. According to the Postal Office, Fay SHIELDS and David SHIELDS are the only two individuals who receive mail at 180 Stone Church Rd., Berwick, PA 18603, Luzerne County.

After the announcement of police with a search warrant the only subjects in the residence were Fay Shields and David SHIELDS. David Shields appeared at the door and opened the door. Both David SHIELDS and Fay Shields exited the front door of the residence. At this time, Agents of the Attorney General's Office and members of the Salem Township Police Department entered the residence. No other individuals were present at the residence.

Your Affiant informed David SHIELDS (herein referred to as David) that the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General had a search warrant for the residence. David indicated that he lives at the residence full time with his wife Fay and no other subject were inside or lived at that residence, 180 Stone Church Rd., Berwick, Pa 18603, Luzerne County.

POLICE CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

Docket Number:	Date Filed: 4/11/19	OTN/LiveScan Number X 251427-1	Complaint/Incident Number 56-2556
Defendant Name:	First: DAVID	Middle:	Last: SHIELDS

Your Affiant and Special Agent Casey Hassinger met with David SHIELDS and asked him if he'd be willing to speak with Agents regarding the reason for the search warrant David indicated the he would. Special Agent Casey Hassinger and Your Affiant escorted David SHIELDS to a rear bedroom and David was asked to have a seat on the bed to be comfortable. Your Affiant informed David that the reason for the interview was relating to a computer related crime for possession of Child Pornography. Your Affiant informed David that he believed that he knew the reason also. David was asked for his consent to audio record the interview. David declined and would not allow the audio recording of the interview.

At approximately 0700 hrs., your Affiant advised David SHIELDS of his Miranda rights, which he understood. David indicated that he can read and write the English language proficiently. David reviewed a paper copy of the Miranda rights, which he read and agreed to speak with Agents without an attorney present and then signed the form. David provided the following information. He has lived at the residence since 2004 and is currently retired from teaching after 33 years. David has internet service to the residence through Metro Cast which is now referred to as Atlantic Broadband. He does not have a wireless router in the residence and only has an Apple Desktop computer. The Desktop does not have a password or any profile names. David stated that he is the main user of the computer. The computer was purchased new from Best Buy approximately five years ago.

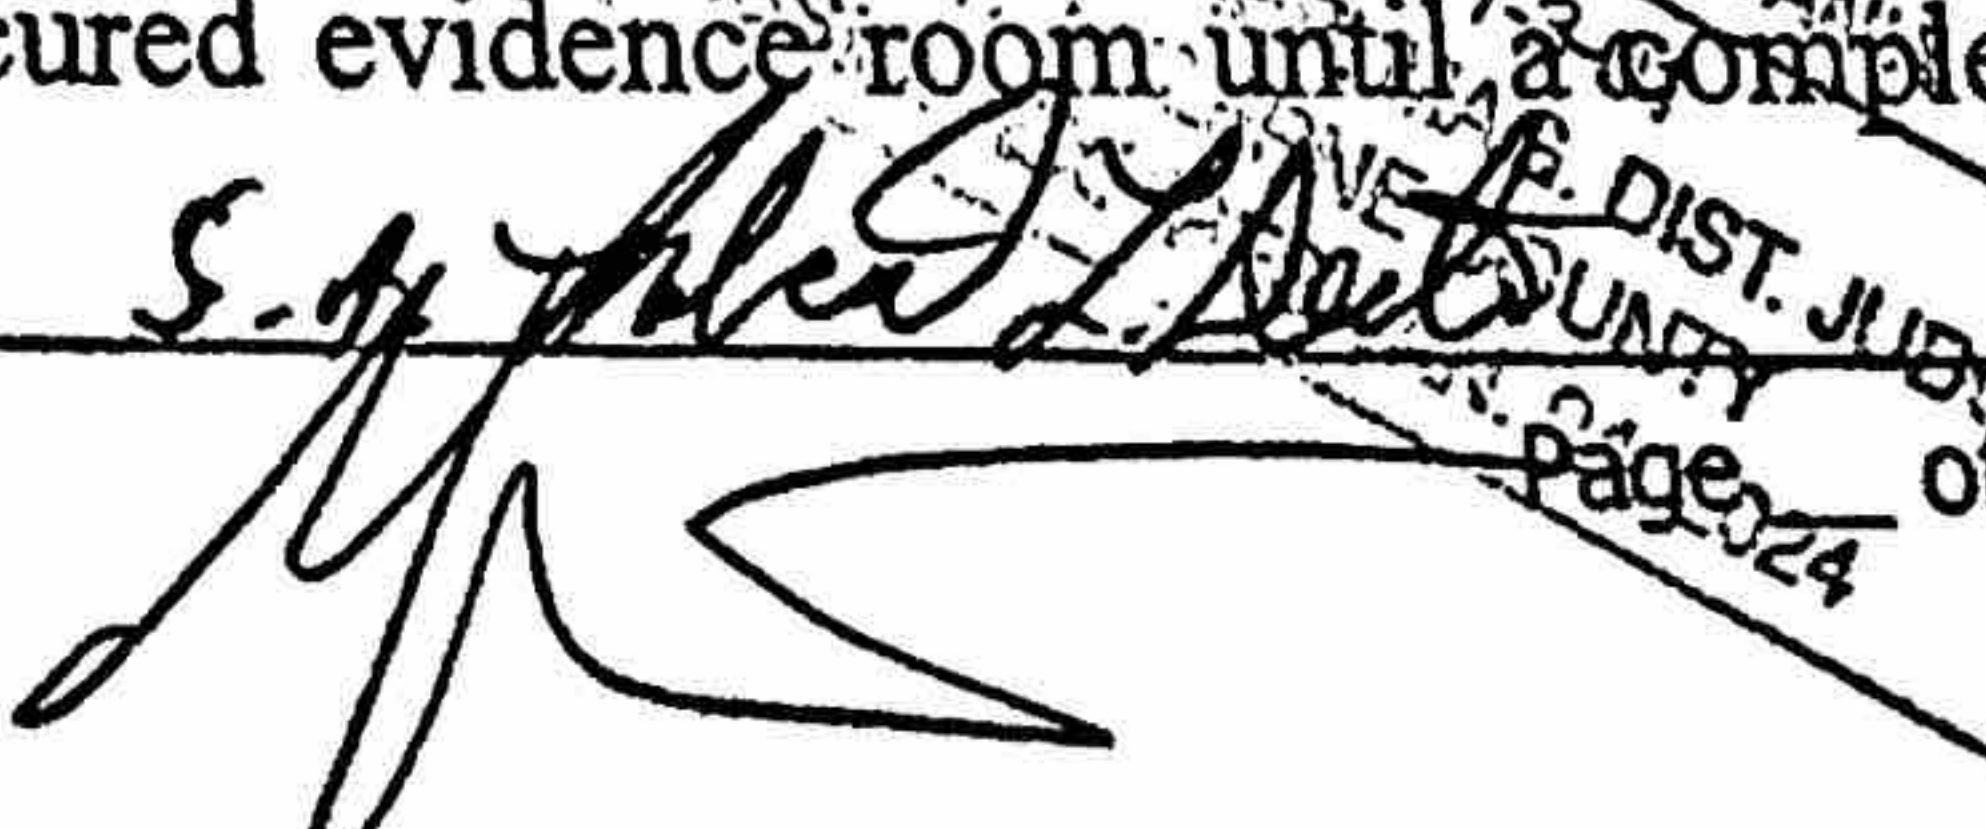

Your Affiant asked David if he had viewed child pornography to which he replied "I guess certainly it would not be Fay." David stated that he has looked at pornography but did not know that it was illegal. David stated that he goes to pornography sites such "Xhamster" and did not recall what search terms he used. Your Affiant asked David if he looked or viewed Child Pornography and what Child pornography meant to him. David stated to him it was little kids engaged in sex activity. David stated that he did not think the pictures he was looking at were inappropriate because most were pictures of children that were not completely nude. David stated that he would become sexually aroused and would masturbate to the pictures. Your Affiant asked if he would view pics and videos. David stated that he only looked at pictures of the Children but did view videos of adult pornography.

David stated that he would search some keywords as "Tween" or "Jail bait" but did not recall others that he may have used. David stated that he looks at all kinds of pornography several times per week but only child pornography maybe once per month. David stated that he did not believe the images to be illegal because the children were partially clothed, usually wearing bikini bottom. David described some of the subjects in the images as having developed breasts and some without. David stated that the last time he viewed child pornography was a few weeks ago but did view normal adult pornography as recent as yesterday (10 April 2019).

Special Agents David Middendorf, Computer Forensics Unit, assisted on scene with previews of the electronic storage devices located within the home. In a preview of David's desktop computer and a loose hard drive from a computer tower that was found together in the office room (letter "C") on the floor, approximately fifty images of child pornography (twenty-four of which depicted indecent contact on minors) were located. It is important to note that the images and videos located on the devices represent only a minor sampling of the apparent child pornography actually found on the items.

All electronic items were transported to the Computer Forensics Unit's secured evidence room until a complete forensic analysis of the items can be completed.
