

Attorney General Josh Shapiro Internship information

Section Name: Fair Labor Section - Public Protection Division

Section Description: The Fair Labor Section partners with labor organizations, community groups, nonprofit and professional associations, other Attorneys General labor sections, and government agencies to investigate and pursue legal and policy actions to end unlawful and/or discriminatory workplace practices. The Fair Labor Section also conducts public outreach to educate workers and the public regarding workers' rights.

Contact: Alixandra Eichelberger
AEichelberger@attorneygeneral.gov
(717) 857-2106

Locations: Philadelphia

Hours per week: Minimum 12 hours

Intern Roles/Responsibilities:

- Assist in the conduct of investigations, attend meetings with stakeholders, perform research and writing, assist in the preparation of materials for distribution to stakeholder groups, and participate in additional activities as they arise.

Qualifications:

- Law students or undergraduates with an interest in labor and employment law and/or prior involvement/interest in labor and employment issues are preferred.
- To be considered for a Legal Internship, applicant must have completed at least 1L year of law school and be currently enrolled in and in good standing with a JD program.
- Proficiency in legal research and writing preferred

Application Requirements:

- Apply using our online application: <https://www.attorneygeneral.gov/the-office/employment/>
- Attach a resume, cover letter, legal writing sample, and current transcripts. Your cover letter should describe why you are interested in labor and employment issues and any relevant experience or knowledge.
- If selected, applicants will be required to submit to a thorough record check.