SETTLEMENT TERMS

NOW THEREFORE, Respondent agrees for itself, its successors, assigns, officers, partners, agents, representatives, employees, and all other persons acting on its behalf, jointly or individually, directly or indirectly or through any corporate or business device, as follows:

I. Facts and Legal Violations

A. Under the Price Gouging Law, during and within 30 days of the termination of a state of disaster emergency declared by the Governor pursuant to the provisions of 35 Pa. C.S § 7301(c) (relating to general authority of the Governor), it is unlawful for any party within the chain of distribution of consumer goods or services or both to sell or offer to sell goods or services within the geographic region that is the subject of the declared emergency for an amount which represents an unconscionably excessive price. 73 P.S. § 232.4(a).

B. In addition, it is prima facie evidence that a price is unconscionably excessive if, during and within thirty (30) days of the termination of a state of disaster emergency, any party within the chain of distribution charges a price that exceeds an amount equal to or in excess of twenty percent (20%) of the average price at which the same or similar consumer goods or services were obtainable in the affected area during the last seven (7) days immediately prior to the declared state of emergency. 73 P.S. § 232.4(b).

C. The Price Gouging Law is inapplicable to any price increase that is due to a disparity that is substantially attributable to additional costs that arose within the chain of distribution in connection with the sale of consumer goods or services, including replacement costs, credit card costs, taxes and transportation costs. 73 P.S. 232.4(c)(1).

D. On March 6, 2020, the Governor of Pennsylvania declared a State of Disaster Emergency for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania related to the COVID-19 pandemic.

E. As of the Effective Date of this Assurance of Voluntary Compliance, a State of Disaster Emergency is currently in place for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

F. Respondent was involved in the chain of distribution of N95 respirator masks. Respondent sells N95 respirator masks to consumers primarily for personal, family or household purposes.

G. The Commonwealth contends that during the period of a State of Disaster Emergency, as declared on March 6, 2020, Respondent sold or offered to sell N95 respirator masks for an unconscionably excessive price in violation of the Price Gouging Law and the Consumer Protection Law.

H. In at least thirty (30) instances during the State of Disaster Emergency, the Commonwealth contends that Respondent charged a price for N95 respirator masks in excess of twenty percent (20%) of the average price at which the same or similar products were obtainable in the affected area seven (7) days prior to March 6, 2020.

I. The Commonwealth alleges that by reason of the aforesaid conduct, Respondent's methods, acts or practices constitute violations of the Price Gouging Law, including, but not limited to, Section 232.4(a), which prohibits any party within the chain of distribution of consumer goods or services or both to sell or offer to sell the goods or services within the geographic region that is the subject of the declared emergency for an amount which represents an unconscionably excessive price. 73 P.S. § 232.4(a).

J. The Commonwealth alleges that by reason of the aforesaid conduct, Respondent's aforesaid methods, acts or practices constitute unfair methods of competition and unfair acts or practices in the conduct of trade or commerce prohibited by Section 201-3 of the Consumer Protection Law, as defined by Section 201-2 of said Law, including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Section 201-2(4)(v), which prohibits representing that goods or services have a sponsorship, approval, characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits or qualities that they do not have or that a person has a sponsorship, approval, status, affiliation or connection that he does not have. 73 P.S. § 201-2(4)(v); and

2. Section 201-2(4)(xxi), which prohibits engaging in any other fraudulent or deceptive conduct which creates a likelihood of confusion or of misunderstanding. 73 P.S. § 201-2(4)(xxi).

73 P.S. §§ 201-3 and 201-2(4)(v) and(xxi).

II. Injunctive Relief & Affirmative Relief

A. Respondent SHALL NOT, in the future, engage in conduct which violates the Consumer Protection Law and any future amendments thereto, including, but not limited to:

1. Respondent SHALL NOT represent that goods or services have a sponsorship, approval, characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits or qualities that they do not have or that a person has a sponsorship, approval, status, affiliation or connection that he does not have as prohibited by the Consumer Protection Law at 73 P.S. § 201-2(4)(v); and

2. Respondent SHALL NOT engage in other fraudulent or deceptive conduct which creates a likelihood of confusion or of misunderstanding as prohibited by the Consumer Protection Law at 73 P.S. § 201-2(4)(xxi).

73 P.S. §§ 201-3 and 201-2(4)(v) and (xxi).

B. Respondent SHALL NOT, in the future, engage in conduct which violates the Price Gouging Law and any future amendments thereto, including, but not limited to, selling or offering to sell the goods or services within the geographic region that is the subject of the declared emergency for an amount which represents an unconscionably excessive price as prohibited by the Price Gouging Law at 73 P.S. § 232.4(a).

C. Respondent SHALL fully comply with any and all provisions of the Price Gouging Law, including any amendments thereto, and is permanently enjoined from any violation thereof.

III. Monetary Relief

A. Respondent hereby agrees to pay the amount of ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED SEVENTY-ONE and 09/100 ($1,971.09) (hereinafter "Monetary Payment") to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Office of Attorney General, to be allocated as follows:

3. Restitution - The sum of TWO HUNDRED TEN and 00/100 Dollars ($210.00) ("Restitution") shall be allocated as Restitution and distributed to affected consumers in accordance with subparagraph III(C) below.

B. Payment Terms - Respondent agrees to pay the above-referenced amounts toward Civil Penalties and Costs in accordance with the terms of Paragraph III (A) herein, by certified check, cashier's check, or money order, made payable to the "Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Office of Attorney General," and forwarded to the Office of Attorney General, 1600 Arch Street, Suite 300, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103 upon Respondent's execution of the Assurance of Voluntary Compliance.

D. The Court of Common Pleas of Bucks County, Pennsylvania shall have jurisdiction over the subject matter of this Assurance of Voluntary Compliance and over Respondent for purposes of enforcement of this Assurance of Voluntary Compliance, violation of which shall be deemed a violation of an injunction issued pursuant to Section 201-4 of the Consumer Protection Law and the Price Gouging Act, so that a violation of this Assurance of Voluntary Compliance shall provide a jurisdictional basis for the Attorney General of this Commonwealth to request the Court to impose penalties as provided in the Consumer Protection Law and any other equitable relief which the Court deems necessary or proper.

E. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to waive any individual right of action by any consumer, person or entity, or any local, state, federal or other governmental entity.

One or more counterparts of this Assurance of Voluntary Compliance may be delivered by facsimile or electronic transmission with the intent that it or they shall constitute an original counterpart hereof.

I. Respondent understands and agrees that if its officers and/or agents have made any false statements in or related to this Assurance of Voluntary Compliance, that such statement is made pursuant to and under penalty of 18 P.S. § 4904 relating to unsworn falsifications to authorities.

J. Respondent shall not represent or imply that the Commonwealth acquiesces in, or approves of, Respondent's past or current business practices, efforts to improve its practices, or any future practices that Respondent may adopt or consider adopting.

K. This Assurance of Voluntary Compliance sets forth all of the promises, covenants, agreements, conditions and understandings between the parties, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, inducements or conditions, express or implied. There are no representations, arrangements, or understandings, oral or written, between the parties relating to the subject matter of this Assurance of Voluntary Compliance that are not fully expressed herein or attached hereto. Each party specifically warrants that this Assurance of Voluntary Compliance is executed without reliance upon any statement or representation by any other party hereto, except as expressly stated herein.

WHEREFORE, Respondent agrees by the signing of this Assurance of Voluntary Compliance to abide by each and every one of the aforementioned provisions and that breach of any of the terms of this Assurance of Voluntary Compliance shall be sufficient warrant for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to petition the Court, to assess penalties including but not limited to civil and other penalties as provided for under Sections 201-8, 201-9 and 201-9.1 of the Consumer Protection Law, and to order any other relief which the Court deems necessary or proper in accordance with the Consumer Protection Law.
