INTRODUCTION

We, the members of the Forty-Sixth Statewide Investigating Grand Jury, having received evidence pertaining to violations of the Pennsylvania Crimes Code occurring in and around Cambria County pursuant to Notice of Submission of Investigation No. 4, do hereby make the following findings of fact and recommendation of charges:

FINDINGS OF FACTS

The Grand Jury heard evidence related to several unsolved homicides in the area of Johnstown, Cambria County. Testimony established that these homicides appear to have been committed in retaliation for actual or perceived slights, disloyalty, or, to establish the reputation of the alleged shooters.

Testimony was presented regarding the death of Barron Grumbling ("BG" or "Grumbling") on May 1, 2017. The Johnstown Police Department was dispatched to the Oakhurst area of Johnstown after local residents called 9-1-1 regarding a shooting in that area. The body of ~~Grumbling~~ ^(EH) Grumbling was located by police at the corner of Merle Place and Corinne Avenue. Detective Mark Britton ("Detective Britton") told the Grand Jury that Grumbling died from a gunshot wound to the head. Detective Britton related that the autopsy revealed that Grumbling had been shot twice: Once in the head and once in the upper back. A third bullet was found lodged in a wooden porch across the street from the body of Grumbling.

The Grand Jury heard testimony from an individual who was an eyewitness to the shooting. The eyewitness testified that he, Grumbling, and Mizzon Grandinetti ("Grandinetti") left a local Johnstown residence to go to a convenience store to purchase "blunts" on May 1, 2017. Narcotics Agent Ryan Caputo of the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General told the Grand Jury that a blunt is a cigar that has had the tobacco removed and replaced with another substance, often marijuana. The eyewitness told the Grand Jury that while the three of them walked together, Grandinetti shot Grumbling with what appeared to be a snub-nose .357. Detective Britton confirmed that the eyewitness told police that Grandinetti had slowed and bent down like he was going to tie his shoe. As Grumbling and the eyewitness walked ahead, Grandinetti fired three shots at Grumbling. Officers testified that other witnesses at the scene also recalled hearing three gun shots. Other witnesses at the scene also confirmed parts of the statement made by the eyewitness to police.

The Grand Jury also heard testimony from another witness to whom Grandinetti confessed. The witness testified that Grandinetti told her that each person that he kills is "money" to him. She told the Grand Jury that she asked Grandinetti to tell her what he had done. Grandinetti then admitted to the witness that he had killed three people. The witness testified that she knew about one of the shootings because she was present when Grandinetti shot ^{at} the victim some months beforehand. Another killing Grandinetti told her about included specific information not released by the police following the shooting. Finally, Grandinetti then admitted to her that he had killed "BG."
